Bed & Bedding Photography

Beautiful Bedrooms

At Prodoto we have all of your bed and bedding image needs covered.

With our extensive studio space and experienced team of interior photographers, we are ready to bring your products to life in the settings of your choice.

No Sleeping On The Job

E-commerce or marketing campaign, product launches or seasonal updates.

Still images or video.

We are here to help you.

AS

All In A Day's Work

Whether your product is the bed itself, or the bedding that dresses it, our stylists know how to bring them to life in aspirational settings.

Clean And Simple

Focus all attention on your product with pared back settings that really highlight the quality of your textiles.

Models

When your products are all about comfort, why not take your lifestyle images to the next level by showing the enjoyment they bring.

Models can be booked to really enhance your shoot with added personality.

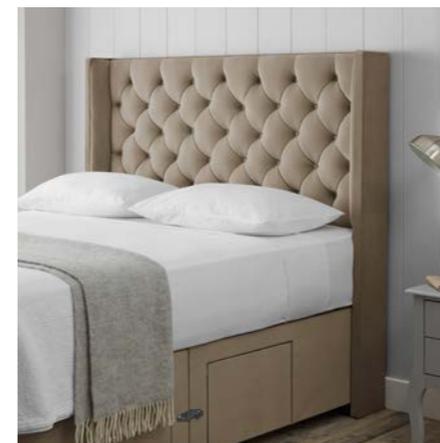

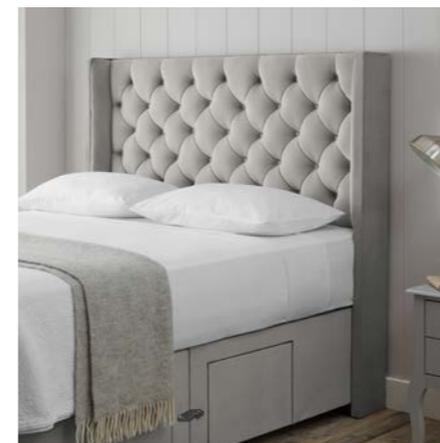

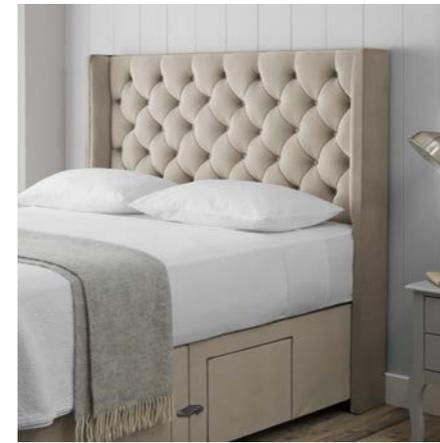

Colour Consistency

Prodoto colour match images to your physical product ensuring the most accurate colour representation.

We then take this a step further ensuring that all images in your range match each other perfectly to give your customer complete confidence.

We can even change fabric colours in post production so you don't need to shoot every option that you sell!

A Dramatic Twist

A move to the dark side can really enhance your product, bringing drama and depth.

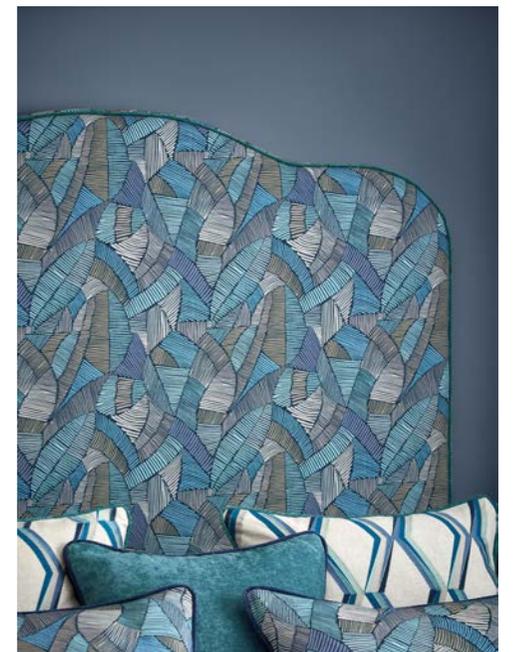

All In The Details

Get really close up to show the quality and texture of your fabrics, along with all those construction features that make your products unique.

Perfect Product Shots

Simple lifestyle settings elevate your product shots, showing scale and finish.

Stacks & Bundles

Smooth and simple e-commerce images illustrating the contents of your multi-buy offerings clearly and consistently.

Teamwork Makes The Dream Work

From the moment your stock arrives the Prodoto team get to work.

Our Goods In department check your stock to ensure everything is here and prepare it carefully for your shoot, steaming or ironing in readiness.

We work with a wide range of interior stylists who can be booked for your shoots to team up with our experienced interior photographers.

If you have a preferred team just let us know, alternatively we can make suggestions and give you options to select from, to give your shoot its finishing touches.

Set Build

Our in-house set build team can produce any setting you need, creating atmosphere and realistic environments for your products.

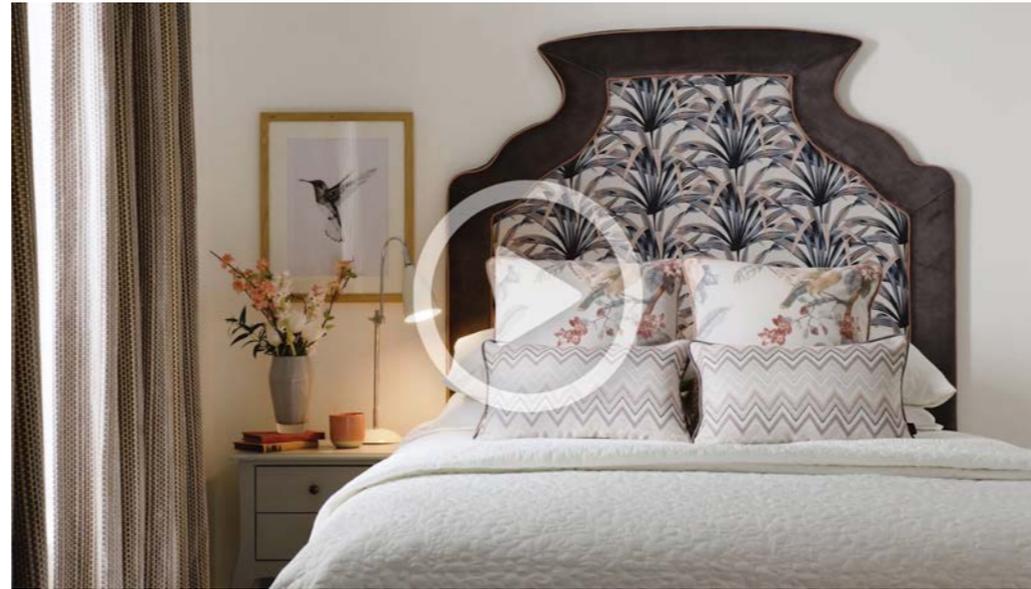

Our studio props are available, and we have good relationships with many local prop hire companies for any special items you need.

Video
